

CITY MATTERS

MEDIA PACK 2024

CITY MATTERS – The City of London’s independent newspaper and website, serving both the workers and residents of the Square Mile.

It features everything from entertainment must-sees and dining hotspots, to breaking news and in-depth profiles – always with a nod to the great City itself, home to the greatest concentration of high net-worth individuals in the UK.

Under its social enterprise status, CITY MATTERS is committed to supporting local businesses while offering training and employment opportunities to young people – an ethos shared by many of our advertising partners.
